ELECTION OF POSTMASTERS. Congressman Springer, of Illinois, is tailed coat. reported to intend introducing at the next session of congress a bill providing for an expression of the popular will as to whom the president shall appoint postmasters. So far as Mr. Springer's plan is understood, it does not contemplate the removal of the appointive power from the president. It is intended rather that a vote shall be taken to ascertain the sentiment of the people of the town or city wherein a postmaster is to be appointed, such vote to be regarded in the light of an instruction to the executive, or at least as a recommendation that shall be accorded due consider-

Mr. Springer's plan is open to several while it would not remove the postoffices from the category of party spoils, would fourth class postmasters. tend to relieve the administration from responsibility for its acts, without impos ing that responsibility upon the people. Further, if it is the plan of Mr. Springer to restrict the right to vote at such elections to members of the party in power, number of trees will be planted which, innumerable difficulties will arise, and in years to come, will help to adorn complaints would be ceaselessly made town and country. that the balloting had been improperly interfered with by members of the opposition party. Postmasters are, from the nature of their duties, federal officers, poverty of ideas. "Our more or less es and are, as they should be, accountable teemed contemporary" served the Inter to the general government. The fact Mountain many days, and promises to be that they owed their selection to a vote part of the Son's stock in trade for many of the people would inevitably have the a day to come. effect to lessen that sense of responsibility which is necessary for the efficiency ness, and more particularly where the achieved power at Washington. It is very ques tionable if the plan proposed by Mr. Springer has any advantages that will lieg of the city council that steps be offset the objections to it that have been taken to prevent the city falling into thus briefly noted.

A WHITE MAN'S PARTY.

A republican contemporary observes, commenting upon the meeting at Birmingham, last week, to organize a white | McCutcheon is the author of "It." man's republican-protection party, that "a white republican party will hardly wipe out the race issue." But it will have a tendency to bring about that much to be desired result, because it will serve to open the eyes of the colored people to the insincerity of republican professions of friendship for their race. The republicans have been seeking to impress upon the colored men of the south the notion that only through the republican party could they ever expect to obtain their political and civil rights. But the action of the Birmingham convention, which was unquestionably the outcome of a conference between southern politicians and Gen. Harrison prior to the latter's inauguration, must convince the blindest of the colored peopla ern politicians and Gen. Harrison prior that they have nothing to hope from the republicans, who have declared, almost in explicit terms, that the only u e they have for the negroes, in a political way, is to vote for white men for office. Wherever the colored people have shown an advancement in the scale of intelligence, the white democrats of the south have given evidence of appreciation by bestowing a share of the offices upon them. The colored people do not need to be told that in the south their best friends are those with whom they have friends are those with whom they have had the longest associations as employer and rejobles, and the exposure of the A. D. EDGAR, General Agent. and neighbor, and the exposure of the falsity of the pretenses of those who have sought to create a breach between the negroes and the whites of the south will work a world of good in establishing the confidence that should exist between the two classes

THE Inter Mountain should do the democratic party the justice of absolving any journalist or other person of that political faith from responsibility for or participation in the attack upon ex-Gov. Crosby for which that eminent ex-Gov. Crosby for which that eminent member of the republican party is now seeking redress through an action for criminal libel. No democratic paper in Montana and no democratic writer, hardened or otherwise, ever attacked the republior otherwise, ever attacked the republican administration's representative in the territorial executive office with half the venom that characterized the article in Mr. Harrison's Cow Journal.

MISSOULA county is first in the field | Choteau and all other towns. with nominees for delegates to the constitutional convention. The republican convention held at the city of Missoula on Saturday put in nomination Judge Charles S. Marshall and G. A. Bennett. The latter was the republican nominee for member of the council last fall, but was defeated by Mr. Bickford. He lacks in every quality that should be considered in choosing members of so important a body as the constitutional convention. The democrats of Missoula can and will do better.

IT would be interesting to know upon what the Bozeman Register bases the allegation contained in its issue of last Saturday that "Helena is opposed to the building of the Northern Pacific by way of Pipestone pass, and is putting forth herculean efforts to have it go by way of Boulder." That such statements have been made from time to time in the Inter Mountain should be evidence that there is nothing in it. The best people of Butte and engineers who should know and do know most about the subject have flatly contradicted the dust-covered andence showed her to be, the verdict would possibly have been received with more favor by the general public. But there was not one lota of testimony to show that King was responsible for her degradation. In such cases the emotional insanity ple ais sadly misused.
